Mr. Thrasher.

Mr. Thrasher.

This gentleman, it will be recollected, attracted general commendation for his humanity to the American prisoners in Cubs, a few months since; while Mr. Owen became equally notorious for a supposed deficiency in the fine impulses of compassion, that adorn the character of man. The former is new incarcerated in Havana for those kind offices, or for his participation in the invasion, we cannot be certain which; and is in danger, it is said, of suffering from the severity of Spanish law. He is au American clitzen, resident in Havana, where he published and edited a paper, which was grow-American citizen, resident in Havzha, where he published and edited a paper, which was growing very popular and profitable, but is now suppressed. Taking it for granted, that he is prosecuted agreeably to the Spanish law, for an oftence defined therein, and that he is receiving, or will receive the benefit of a trial, according to the usages of the courts of justice in Cuba with regard to citizens of the island, as well as largely, if not learnedly discused, in various papers, and we have not the lest intention to appears, and we have not the lest intention to appear from their decision to Grotius, Puffendorf.

Burlamqui, or Vattel, because we have frequently been told, that national law, though it professes to be founded on the law of nature.

Professes to be founded on the law of nature.

Fosdick, Henry has become obsolete, as interpreted by those old writers, and require to be entirely re-writen, and because we have an esprit du corps enough to induce us to yield a willing assent to an interpretation of national law by the hewspaper press, as soon as we can find out what it is But here there is no small difficulty. By some we are informed, that the administration is bound to enforce American law, not only from the St. John to California, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific ocean; but that it must follow Henry, John 2 tic to the Pacific ocean; but that it must follow such an emigrant as Mr. Thrasher intending to remain abroad for a temporary purpose or fur life; certainly, as long as his business continues profitable; the government of this country is to follow after such a man, who, for the time being at least, prefers a foreign country before his own, and cover him with the Ægis of the nation he has abandoned; endow the spot of soil where he has chosen to build his dwelling or establish his business, with the immunities of a land of libdriy; and take care that he is not molested in his person or his property, except in just those cases in which the mild and equal laws of the United States would pronounce him to be responsible. An emigrant, like Mr. Thrasher for example, or any other person resident al road by his own consent, and for his own advantage, is to enjoy all that is favorable and profitable to him in the laws and institutions of the land of his birth, as well as that of his adoption, while he is exemp, most happily. from whatever is stringent or inconvenient in both. This seems to be the scatiment of some

On the contrary, there are others, whom from prejudices imbibed by the perusal of the old fashioned authors we have named, imagine, that an individual who fixes his abode in a territory beyond the jurisdiction of this Republic, can no more expect to receive the benefit of the code of laws he has left behid, in the construction of his contracts, or the phoishment of his crimes, than he can hope to have an apple orchard, or a clover grop in a tobacco field, or cof fee plantation. It is thought, that he can no more have the benefit of two independent codes of law, than of two climates at the same time and place; but must make his choice between mericans are now living in foreign lands; but every one can see it to be no light matter to administer the taws to our citizens, wide spread and numerous as they are, even if they stay at home. But if Urole Sam shall be called up in to hold an umbrella over every child of his, that has atrayed away, and see that nabody me lests him from carrying a couple of revolvers in his pocket, and a bowie knife, as he has been accustomed to do in his own country, it is thought by many, that the old gentleman will have his hands full, and come to blows with every nation on the globe.

titudes of Spaniard, Frenchmen, Germans, En glish, and men of every name almost beneath the san, temporarily living in our borders Ma ny of whom violate our laws, are they not amenable, precisely like one of our own citizens, to the jurisdition of our courts, and the American code of laws? We should tolerate the interrention in such cases, of no foreign power. These foreigners are liable to taxation, and most other duties and burdens of a citizen, unless it be the military, with which we do not choose to entrust them. No; there are no persons, who carry the laws of their own coutry with them for their protection, except embassadors and ministers; and they are clothed with this immunity, because they represent the sover-eighty of the nations that send them forth.

The care of Mr. Brace, in Hungary, which has been cited, is not a parallel one; because he was not a resident at all; but a more traveller through the country by permission of its Government. Still we give no countenance to those who would have the Government regardless of the lives of American Citizens, wherever they may be, who call upon it for assistance in the hour of their extremity. It should listen to the voice, and interpose its powerful arm to compel the execution of treaty stipulations, if there are such; and if not to do what they can to procure for them the benefits of those original and universal laws of nature, of justice and humanity, innate in every human breast .-

BLAKE'S PATENT

FIRE PROOF PAINT. DURABILITY.—It has now been tested more than siz years by the severest trials, and in every case the action of the weather seems only to indurate and render it more and more permanent. In no instance has it ever been known to crack, cleave off, or waste by time.

it ever been known to crack, clease of, or sease by time.

Certificates.

I insert a statement of more than twenty men, of the highest standing, in Sharon, Ohio, in the vicinity of the mines as follows:

"We have seen a house that was painted with Fire Proof Paint, by Mr. Blake, as an experiment, nearly siz years since, and find it now like steas, the action of the weather having no other effect (where well applied) than to turn it to state.

weather having no other enect (water wert applied) to turn it to slate.

"We have also seen a substance got up and sold by different persons, called "Fire Proof Paint," which spots and fadea so badly, that the buildings we have seen cevered with it in a few months, present such an appearance that no person, we believe, after seeing these would use it if given them: We consider Elake's Pat unt Fire Proof Paint the only fire-proof paint that is made in this country worth using "Signed by Barnabas Crane and twenty others Skaren, April 1850.

I have recently examined a building that stood eight years without painting. About aix years since, Mr. Blake applied one cost of his fire proof paint, by way of experiment. I now find it as firm as a stone, and as perfect to all appearance, as it was a year after applied; and will further say, that there has been such a complete failure in all the kinds of stoff got up here, called fire proof paint, eacept Blake's, and that his only is considered worth using.

Washisotos, Ohio, Feb. 1819.

This certifies that my wife aged 27 years, has been suffering under the above complaint for 5 years—nearly all of thet time confined to her bed. I have for 4 years constantly employed the best medical that could be procured in this section of the country, without any beach whatever. I have also purchased every instrament recommended for the cure of such diseases, all of which proved worthless.

In the spring of 1848, I was induced by my friends to try Dr. Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaprilla, which was used for 4 months. After she had used it for about 4 weeks, I was ovident to all that she was improving, and from that time she improved rapidly, and gained flesh and strength, until the disease was entirely removed, and she is now enjoying most excellent health.

We, being the neighbors of William and Julia Mont fort, know that the above sufteneot, as to the sickness of Mrs. Montford, and as to the cure being effected by Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaprila, to be strictly true.

Messre F. S. Bennett & Cu—Gents: Some timk in 1843 I was attracked with King's Evil in my arm, which he came so sore that I could not use it and is 1843 mortification set in. I employed, at different times, cash physician of celetifity within my reach; and all told me that my arm must be amputated. From the shoulder to the fore-arm, my arm was full of running sores—some of them as large as a fifty cent piece. I then tried an Indiau doctor, who removed the mortified flesh, and stopped the mortification, but could not heal my arm; my strength at this time was completely exhausted, and my persou much emaciated. I continued in this state until the summer of 1848 when I saw an advertisement of Guysout's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which I read attentively, and sent for one notice of the article. After using it a few days, the discharges from my arm increased, and assumed a light color, and less offensive odor. I sent for a secand bottle, and while using it I found my strength increasing and the discharges from my arm decreasing. I continued using it until I had used it bot the sixth bottle. Since that time I have not felt any pain in my arm; no sores have ce appeared, and I have no test my pain in my arm; no sores have ce appeared, and I have no reason to doubt that it is thoroughly cured, for I can labor with if as well as I ever could.

"Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla," alone cured me; I took no other remedy white using it and had I used it at the first appearance of the malady. I fully believe it would have saued me from years of suffering—And I most earneadly recommend every person suffering under any similar disease to use Guysott's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla, which is related to the most earnest
